COMMANDING GENERAL'S POLICY LETTER 3-01

From: Commanding General, Marine Corps Recruiting Command
To: Distribution List

Subj: PHASE ONE OF THE MARINE CORPS RECRUITING COMMAND
HEADQUARTERS REORGANIZATION

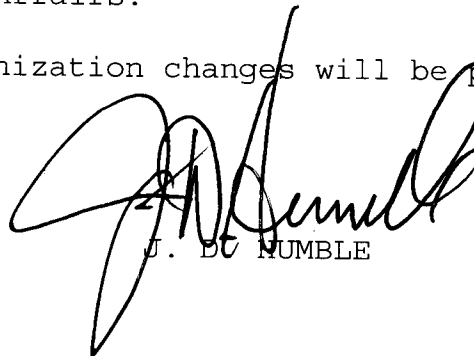

1. I have directed the reorganization of the Marine Corps Recruiting Command (MCRC) staff to reflect operational staff organization common to operating forces staffs. The first phase of the reorganization was effective 0700, 20 August 2001, when the following changes took place.

a. The 8412 MOS specialist was renamed the 8412 monitor and reports directly to the AC/S, G-1.

b. The AC/S, G-7, was renamed as the G-3 Training Section, and reports directly to the AC/S, G-3. The AC/S, Officer Programs, reports directly to the AC/S, G-3.

c. The AC/S, Advertising was renamed the AC/S, Marketing & Public Affairs. The Public Affairs Section reports directly to the AC/S, Marketing & Public Affairs.

2. Additional staff organization changes will be published as they occur.

J. DC NUNBLE
